ST. JOHN'S

Thank you to our Volunteers!

We would like to extend a most sincere thank-you to the wonderful crowd of volunteers whose enthusiasm, commitment and dedication makes the NL Folk Festival a success year after year. Simply put, this festival would not be possible without your hard work.

Vendors

This year we have more than 20 food, artisan, merchandise, and community partner vendors. There will be lots to see and do (and eat!) while taking a stroll around the festival grounds.

Merchandise

Fred's Records has merchandise from festival artists and O'Brien's has a selection of traditional musical instruments and accessories.

Accessibility

The Newfoundland & Labrador Folk Festival strives to make our festival inclusive and accessible to all patrons. We are proudly partnering with InclusionNL again this year and sincerely thank them for their efforts!

This year's features include:

- Designated accessible Blue Zone parking in Park Lot
- Free entrance to attendant with City-issued attendant's pass and accompanied by a ticket-holder.
- Designated Blue Zones in the audience.
- Accessible portable washrooms.

In the Inclusion Tent (proudly supported by TD):

- Inclusion Crew - happy to assist in any way they can!
- Listening devices - from the Canadian Hard of Hearing Association.
- Spare wheelchairs for short-term loan.
- Large-print and braille schedules for each session
- Quiet zone – A safe space for people who may be feeling overwhelmed to sit out of the sun, away from the crowds.

Festival Schedule

The 43rd Annual Newfoundland & Labrador Folk Festival is poised to be another incredible weekend of entertainment for the whole family. Spread out over three exciting days, the Festival is the coming together of community, province and culture — our province is renowned for its contributions to the musical fabric of Canada and we do all we can to wave that flag high and proud.

Operated by The Newfoundland and Labrador Folk Arts Society with a host of volunteers, sponsors and partners, the Festival is a summertime tradition that has been shared by thousands.

The Newfoundland and Labrador Folk Arts Society

Active since 1966, the Newfoundland and Labrador Folk Arts Society presents educational and cultural events that allow artists to showcase their work and promote the transmission of our intangible cultural heritage.

Stop by to see us in the Folk Arts Society Tent!

- Check out our fabulous raffle prizes
- Buy a Festival T-Shirt
- ATM now located next to the tent
- Water Stations right next door!
